Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

mingo county, Miss. By his first wife James had four children, one being John Goodwin, who resided in St. Louis. James married —— —— for a second wife. By this marriage he had William Samuel, who married Adelia Theresa Hedrick, daughter of David Hedrick.

William Samuel Goodwin, born 1845 in Iuka, Miss., was married in August, 1869, at Cooperstown, Ill., to Adelia Theresa Hedrick, born November 18, 1848, in Eaton, Ohio, a daughter of David and Susan (Snider) Hedrick. He was a farmer residing in Cooperstown, Ill. Children: i. George William, born April 7, 1870; ii. John Thomas, born October 24, 1872, died in December, 1872; iii. Laura Alice, born October 26, 1874; iv. Ida May, born April 27, 1876, married John Sullivan; v. Robert Hedrick, born May 1, 1880.

BAILEY'S HARBOR, WIS., GOODWINS.

Frederick Goodwin came to Bailey's Harbor in 1865. He was then about thirty-five years of age, and is said to have come from some place in New York. He was married to Eunice Lincoln at Crystal Lake, Ill., in 1867. Mr. Goodwin was a shoemaker. In less than a year after his marriage he mysteriously disappeared and all inquiries concerning him have proved fruitless. To this marriage was born one child named Cora E., who resides in Hennepin, Ill., and who would be very glad to receive any information concerning her father or his people.

ELIZABETH CITY, VA., GOODWINS.

John Goodwin, born 1778 in Ramsgate, England, married Sarah Elizabeth Phillips, born 1780, daughter of Thomas Fretwell Phillips, who was born in Bridgetown, Barbadoes. John died at Celeys, Elizabeth City county, Va., in 1808, aged thirty years. His widow married David Brodie, and died September 26, 1815, aged thirty-five years. Child: i. Thomas Fretwell, born February 10, 1804, married Sarah Anne Simkins.

Thomas Fretwell Goodwin (John), born February 10, 1804, in London, England, married Sarah Anne Simkins in Elizabeth City county, Va. Thomas Fretwell Goodwin died March 24, 1847. Sarah Anne Goodwin died July 5, 1872. Adopted child: i. niece of Mrs. Goodwin, born ——, married Prof. Baker P. Lee.

They have two children, Goodwin Lee and Mrs. Harry Booker, both of Hampton, Va.

HARTFORD, CONN., GOODWINS.

The very complete records of the Hartford Goodwins, compiled for Hon. James J. Goodwin, fails to trace the family of Eleazer Goodwin number 850 of that work. His descendants have been found in the search for the Southern Goodwins, but the name is spelled Goodwyn.

Eleazer Goodwin (Eleazer, Eleazer, Nathaniel, William, Ozias), born in New Hartford, Connecticut, and baptized there April 12, 1767, married January 24, 1788, Hannah Merrill, born in 1767, and died February 10, 1813. Her father died April 22, 1812, aged sixty-six years, and her mother died July 19, 1833, aged eighty-eight years. They resided, according to the Hartford Goodwin book, in Bridgewater, Oneida county, N. Y., in 1800, and in Sangerfield, in the same county, in 1805. From the Merrill family came the Skaneateles estate, which was never satisfactorily settled, owing to the impossibility of finding all the heirs. The names of the children differ slightly from the Hartford record. The latter gives Clarissa instead of Clarinda, and does not give a Harvey or a Harriet, while the Southern records omit Hiram, Harlow and Elizabeth. Children: i. Clarinda (Clarissa), baptized Aug. 23, 1789, living in 1890; ii. Hiram, baptized October 27, 1793; iii. Elias, born February 21, 1794, married Elizabeth Tarlton; iv. Harlow; v. Philo, married and left six children; vi. Harvey, married and left two children; vii. Elizabeth; viii. Harriet, living in 1890.

Elias Goodwin (Eleazer), born February 21, 1794, married September 14, 1819, Elizabeth Tarlton, born January 18, 1803, daughter of Jeremiah and Catherine (Hilemon) Tarlton, who were married March 1, 1791. They resided in or near New Albany, Ind., where Mr. Goodwin died January 24, 1836. On December 25, 1836, his widow married Theodore J. Barnett, by whom she had two children, Maria L., born January 15, 1838, and Isabella K., born July 29, 1840. About 1825 Philo M. Goodwin moved to New Orleans and changed the spelling of the name to Goodwyn. His four brothers also made the same change when they removed to New Orleans a few years later. Rev. Alexander E. Goodwyn is said to have the complete family records, but no reply has been received from him, a change of residence now